Scientists Figured Out How Fast the Universe Is Expanding, But the Answer Is Troubling

It's not all that surprising to think there are major gaps in our understanding of the universe.

By Luis Prada April 15, 2026, 9:50am

Share:

You probably heard that the universe is constantly expanding. There's a bit of an update to that: it's still expanding, and it's happening far faster than scientists previously thought. They have no idea why, and seem just a bit concerned about that.
